The success of C.A.M.P. depends on registrants and exhibitors staying at the contracted host hotel to offset the sizable costs of producing the conference and exhibits. C.A.M.P. cannot meet contracted room obligations if registrants and exhibitors reserve rooms in other area hotels. Sustaining a financially successful conference for C.A.M.P. means ensuring that both conference registrants and exhibitors have a quality, meaningful event that will reap benefits for you and the profession for years to come.

- Horseshoe Bay has let us know that their employees will wear masks and their staff will be cleaning high traffic areas.
  - Guests staying on property are not required to wear masks.
- We ask that all choosing to attend CAMPference to self-monitor for symptoms related to COVID-19 leading up to CAMPference.
- If there are any concerns with personal health or potential exposure, please communicate with your respective CAMP contact person.
- During CAMPference, we recommend masks be worn in high-traffic or low-circulated areas where our attendees are unable to physically distance.
  - This may include breakout rooms, registration areas and the vendor hall.
